PROHIBITION IN IOWA.

The campaign in Iowa will be one of more than common interest. The prohibition question is one of some importance in that state, for the reason that the political parties have made it an issue. The republicans are pledged to the support and enforcement of the law, while the democrats are opposed to it.

The present secretary of state, the Hon. Frank D. Jackson, in his opening speech of the campaign, gave some figures illustrating the operation of the prohibitory law in that state.

The present prohibitory liquor law took effect April 8, 1886. The following table of figures shows the commitments to the penitentiaries of the state:

In 1886..... 327 In 1887..... 298
In 1888..... 329 In 1889..... 282
In 1890..... 358 In 1891..... 290

The presidential vote in 1880 was 322, in 1884 it was 404,000, a gain of 82,000 votes, indicating an increase of 82,000 population, and yet the commitments of 1888 show ninety-eight less than in 1885. The commitments to the penitentiaries for eight years previous to 1885 averaged 322 per year; since that time they have averaged 281. The convictions for felonies for the year ending Sept. 30, 1885, were 475. The next year 435, and for the year 1888, 300.

The convictions for nuisance were as follows:

In 1886..... 629 In 1887..... 452
In 1888..... 693 In 1889..... 297
In 1890..... 562

The convictions for violations of the liquor law were:

In 1886..... 629 In 1887..... 524
In 1888..... 693 In 1889..... 324
In 1890..... 564

From 1881 to 1884 there was one conviction from every 1,395 persons. From 1884 to 1887 one conviction from every 1,597 persons. For the year 1888 one person was convicted from every 2,445 persons.

For 1879 every 2,973 persons in the state were obliged to support a convict in the state penitentiary, while in 1888 one convict supported in the penitentiary out of every 3,499 persons.

The number of commitments to the penitentiaries in 1882 was equal to one in 4,999 of the total population. In 1888 it was one in 5,845 of the total population.

One of the objections to the present law—the objection being made by democrats chiefly—is that the law kills emigration. It certainly has of the criminal class, for in 1885, the year before the enactment went into effect, there were 167 fugitives from justice on requisition secured from other states at a cost of $17,000, while in 1888 the number fell to 37. Mr. Jackson also made a comparison between Missouri and Iowa as follows: "In the license state of Missouri with a population but little greater than Iowa, the commitments to the state penitentiaries for the years 1887 and 1888 were 1,523. In Iowa for the same period there were 538." There is no doubt whatever, that the people of Iowa will sustain the law.

It may be of interest to the public to compare the commitments to the state prisons in Iowa and Wisconsin. The population of the former state is a little greater than our own state, and since constitutional prohibition has been largely enforced, commitments to the penitentiary have decreased as the figures already presented show. During the past two years the commitments to the Wisconsin state prison have likewise decreased. The commitments to Waupun from 1883 to 1888, both years inclusive, have been as follows:—

1884..... 127
1885..... 128
1886..... 129
1887..... 130
1888..... 131

But Wisconsin is a remarkable state so far as the commission of crimes are concerned. Taking the convictions per thousand of inhabitants, and the record will show that our state stands well high in the list rank.

THE LUMBER QUESTION.

When people talk about the prospects of a lumber famine in this country, especially in the northwest, they know but little of the vastness of the timber resources of the Pacific states. Very recently the San Francisco Farmer and Dealer, a paper which has given the lumber question considerable careful study, makes some statements concerning the timber region of that portion of the country that are filled with wonder. It is stated there are piles of lumber on the coast made up of boards over 100 feet long and over 6 feet wide, and without a single knot in any of them. This length and width of lumber are common out of the gigantic fir trees of the Puget Sound forests and the trees grow to the remarkable height of 250 feet. The forests are so vast that the enormous amount of 500,000,000 feet of lumber has been sawed out of the mills every year during the past ten years, and the spaces made by these incursions seem no more than garden patches. The shoreline of Puget Sound is over 1,800 miles. It is one vast unbroken forest of these enormous trees extending miles and miles into the interior.

The further statement is made that according to official estimates, the amount of standing timber is more than 500,000,000 feet and will last more than a thousand years to come, even at the tremendous rate at which the timber is now being felled and ripped. Over 30,000,000 acres of Washington Territory are covered by the timber belt, an area equal to the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Vermont and Connecticut. The Puget Sound lumber is mostly marketed in North America, Central America, Australia and the Pacific Ocean Islands.

A BIG CRONIN SENSATION.

A MYSTERY CAUSES GREAT EXCITEMENT.

An All-Night Conference of the Lawyers and a Dozen Arrests—Rumored Treachery of an Official.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—New and startling developments have been made in the Cronin case. Since before 2 o'clock Friday afternoon the utmost excitement has pervaded the Criminal court building and police circles. During Friday night the entire Criminal court building was guarded by a posse of policemen, all the entrances were securely barred and locked and watched by officers from the central station.

At 11:55 a woman, bundled up with shawl and wraps past any chance of recognition, was brought up to the front door of the Criminal court in Chief Hubbard's buggy, in charge of two officers in citizen's clothes. She was hurriedly smuggled through the crowd of eager news-gatherers, whence, after a moment's delay, she—witness or prisoner—was ushered into the hallway and lost to sight in the corridor that leads to the State's Attorney's private office.

Rumor says the woman is either Miss Annie Murphy, the young lady employed by the recorder's office, who thought she saw Dr. Cronin riding in a North Side street car on the night of May 4, or Mrs. Mike Whalen, cousin to and housekeeper for Patrick O'Sullivan, the ice man.

If either of these two names is correct it is probably the former. From the glimpse the reporter got of the woman as she was hurriedly hustled from the buggy to the vestibule she appeared to be a young person—between 17 and 20 years of age. She stepped sprightly, and yet with a dignified bearing peculiar to the talented young element, who at one time was thought to have been the prospective wife of Dr. Cronin.

It is quite possible, however, that neither lady named was the one taken to the State's Attorney's office. Everything connected with the entire mystery—and a mystery of the most unfathomable kind have been the actions of those connected with the prosecution since early Friday—seems to strengthen the current belief that the developments are of an entirely new and heretofore unthought of and unheard of character.

A very prevalent rumor is that the man who drove Dr. Cronin to his death on the night of May 4 has been captured, had confessed, and has implicated a number of persons who have never before publicly figured in the conspiracy. The most extravagant rumors gained currency in police and official circles. The rumors, the lawyers, and every one connected with the case, however, maintained the strictest silence, and nothing of a positive nature could be gleaned.

By some it is said the excitement has been caused by the discovery that an ex-employee of the State's Attorney's office has disappeared and with him all the evidence in the case—both the certified copy of the evidence before the coroner and the grand jury, and the material evidence—hair, blood, cotton, etc., found in the trunk and about the Carlson cottage. The accused person is said to be in Canada or at least beyond the reach of the law.

Detectors were busy all day Friday and no less than a dozen persons were brought into the State's Attorney's office, but all of them except three were afterward released. At 2:37 o'clock Saturday morning two men were taken out of State's Attorney Longenecker's office through a door leading into an alley. Both were handcuffed and two policemen guarded them. It was raining at the time and the men were taken by the officers on a brisk trot through the alley north and thence to the Chicago avenue station, where they were locked up.

The men were medium height and rather slim build. One was about 5 feet 7 inches tall, the other perhaps an inch taller. Both had mustaches, one of a reddish brown hue, the other's mustache was dark. In general appearance and outline one answered to the description given of the indicted man Patrick Conroy. The other man, who was seen through the window in the afternoon, would nearly answer to the description of the man who drove Dr. Cronin from the Conklin house to the Carlson cottage.

The secrecy observed by the officers and by the State's Attorney indicate that the prisoners, whoever they are, are regarded as valuable captures. If Conroy is one of the witnesses, it is evidently the intention to use him as a witness. Otherwise he would be lodged in the county jail. Neither prisoner seemed reluctant to go to the station with the police officers.

Capt. Schuttler was at the station to receive the men, but refused point blank to say one word as to who they were. He would only say that both would prove important persons in the Cronin case.

One of the prisoners, who occupied a chair in the room at the south end of the State's Attorney's chambers, is about 40 or 45 years of age, weight 150 pounds or thereabouts, and stands about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches. In features he strongly resembles the missing suspect "Conroy," the short stubby red mustache, high cheek bones, square jaw, and roguish cast of the eyes being identical with the description of the Fox which have been published.

The attorneys for the prosecution and the police absolutely refuse to give the least hint as to what all the excitement and arrests mean, and the belief in the importance of the developments is strengthened by the fact that the State's Attorney had Judge McConnell's court adjourn suddenly Friday, saying he was obliged to attend to certain matters in the case demanding his attention elsewhere. He at once retired to his office and an all-night conference followed.

THE STATE OF TRADE.

Large Crop Movement and Active Demand for Staples.

New York, Oct. 12.—Bradstreet's "State of Trade" says: Special telegrams indicate that the volume of general trade remains about the same as previously noted. The outlook for the autumn's trade is quite favorable. These facts, together with the rapid movement from growers' hands of cotton, Indian corn, and wheat, lend to the interior for staple products, which, in consequence, are noticeably active. The iron market shows added strength, and an appearance of 35 cents for pig-iron is imminent, which may cause more slackness to blow in soon. Steel rails have sold at $1.02 per ton over quotations of three weeks ago, $1.03 at the mill, now being bottom prices. About 300,000 tons have been contracted for this week. Structural iron and steel mills are oversold and beams and channels are 3-10 cents higher. Nails are higher and soft steel is advancing. Business failures reported number 213 in the United States this week, against 186 last week and 193 this week last year. The total of failures in the United States Jan. 1, to date is 8,747, against 7,631 in 1888.

As a horse and cattle lotion Salvation Oil has proven itself an infallible remedy. It has received the hearty endorsement of many old and well known horsemen. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Mothers, do not let your darlings suffer with the whooping cough while you have a remedy so near at hand. Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and the little sufferer will soon find relief.

Advice to Mothers.

Man Wagon's Sore Throat Remedy. It is used for children, throat, hoarseness, the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures whooping cough, and is the best remedy for diphtheria, $50 a bottle.

AXTELL IS THE KING.

The Famous Colt Tots a Mile at Terre Haute in 2:12.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 12.—The fourth day of the fall meeting brought out a crowd large and enthusiastic to see the great AxteLL beat the 3-year-old record (2:13), held by the California filly, Sunol. When brought out for the warming up heat the horse moved with such freedom and determination that but few thought the record would stand, but that he would knock one and three quarter seconds from the wildest enthusiast did not dream.

Williams nodded for the word at the second attempt and the great flight was begun. With that smooth action that marks him as the purest-gaited horse that ever lived, the first quarter was reached in 33; the city is made faster to the half in 1:04. "Too fast," said Col. Conley, and a sigh goes up from the crowd as it is felt that the drive is made too soon; still the game colt cut out his own race and was faster. Thirty-two and a quarter is the gain to the three-quarter post. With never a falter he breasts the hill and turns into the stretch.

On he comes, and without a wobble or false stroke he flashes the mile in 2:12. Thus at one stroke he reduced the 3-year-old record one and three-quarter seconds, also the record for stallions at all ages. Pandemonium broke loose; the stretch is black with a shouting, yelling mob. Williams is taken from the sulky and borne aloft on shoulders, and cheer after cheer goes up for the gallant colt and driver.

The official timers were J. H. Steiner, secretary of the American Trotting association; A. F. Bush of Detroit, and Col. Conley of Chicago. Their watches agreed exactly on all fractions of the mile. The track is seven feet over a mile by official survey.

Sedalia Boy won the 2:27 trot in 2:22; Fortune the Edwood stakes in 2:23; and Jack the 2:16 race in 2:17.

AxteLL sold for $105,000. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 12.—Col. Conley of Chicago has completed the purchase of the great trotter AxteLL for $105,000. It is supposed he represents a syndicate. Andy Walsh of Hartford and John Madden of Chicago offered $101,000 for the colt and had a certified check for the same.

He refused and afterward accepted Col. Conley's offer with much reluctance. "This is the highest price ever paid in the world for a horse of any description."

THE CZAR AT BERLIN.

Russia's Ruler Welcomed by Emperor William to the German Capital.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—The czar arrived here Friday morning. His majesty was accompanied by the Grand Duke George, his second son.

Emperor William, several of the royal princes, Prince Bismarck, Count Herbert Bismarck, and a number of generals and court officials received the visitors at the Lehrter station. The czar was attired in the uniform of the German Alexander regiment, of which he is honorary colonel. He and Emperor William embraced repeatedly. After the greeting was over the czar turned to Prince Bismarck and shook hands with him. He also held a brief conversation with the chancellor.

The members of the czar's suite were then presented to the members of Emperor William's party, after which the guard of honor defiled before the Russian ruler, the band playing the Russian national hymn. The party then proceeded to the state carriage, and drove through the Brandenburg gates, across the Koenigsplatz, and to the Russian embassy.

As the Imperial carriages passed the Brandenburg gate a park of artillery began firing a salute of 101 guns. The streets along the route were decorated with flags and bunting, but the crowd which had gathered did not cheer as the czar passed along. Emperor William wore the uniform of the Russian Vologda regiment, and had on his breast the decoration of the Russian order of St. Andrew. Prince Bismarck also wore his Russian orders.

The admirals attached to the British channel squadron, which is now at Kiel, were present at the station when the czar arrived, and were saluted by him.

Emperor William took his departure from the Russian embassy after stopping a few minutes. Prince Bismarck remained and held a twenty-minute conversation with the czar. His majesty took luncheon with the German officers forming his special suite.

Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.

Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.

Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures unobtainable by any other medicine.

Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "10 doses equal 100." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as prompt results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is none of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.

Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by all druggists, $1.50 per box. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

THE CONCLAVE IS OVER.

SIR KNIGHTS DEPART FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

Last Business of the Session-The Civil Service Commissioners' Report-General Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The Knights have broken ranks. Thousands of them went to Mount Vernon, while others thousands were scattered through the city. Everywhere was seen the white plume and the red cross.

At the session of the grand encampment of the Knights of the District of Columbia, which was held at the Hotel of the District of Columbia, was suspended from all knightly intercourse for a year for having illegally knighted William O'Connell, and the latter's election was declared illegal.

The grand master announced the appointment of the following officers: Gen. M. Moulton of Illinois, grand standard-bearer; Col. Myron M. Parker of the District of Columbia, grand sword-bearer; Henry M. Alton of Tennessee, grand warden; Francis E. White of Nebraska, grand captain of the guard.

The afternoon session of the grand encampment visited Mount Vernon as the guests of the triennial committee. A prayer was offered at the tomb of Washington, but no other exercises were held, and the knights returned to Washington in time to attend a grand banquet given by the local committee in their honor.

The banquet was the final fixed event of the convocation.

THEIR ANNUAL REPORT.

Civil-Service Commissioners Asking for More Money to Carry on the Work.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The annual report of the civil service commission for the fiscal year, which closed June 30 last is likely to be a vigorous document. It will make a strong argument for a competitive system for the civil service.

The commissioners intend to request of Congress an appropriation adequate to do the work required of them by law and by rules. The appropriation authorized for the present year is only $55,000, but the commission estimates that the amount is more than doubled. The clerical work is constantly running behind, and the commissioners are doing the work that ought to be done by subordinates, and more money is imperatively required.

The board is not to die of starvation. Additional money is needed, not only to carry on the work of the commission here in Washington, but to give some compensation to the secretaries of local boards who are kept constantly busy registering applications for places and giving information about taking examinations.

Neither Gov. Thomson nor Mr. Roosevelt is satisfied with the rule permitting transfers from the ranks of laborers to classified service. They share President Cleveland's apprehension that the rule may be abused for the purpose of promoting political friends who can stand out of examination. The rule is a dangerous one, and early next year it will probably be dropped. This matter, however, will not call for treatment in the report, but will merely require the action of the commission and the approval of the President.

A CONSUL IS ACCUSED.

Mr. Lewis Called From Tangier to Answer Charges.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A strange figure sat in the center of a group gathered in Secretary Blaine's office yesterday. It was that of Mr. Benezuel, the Moroccan merchant whose complaint against William Baird Lewis, United States consul at Tangier, has been laid before President Harrison. Around him were Secretary Blaine, Mr. Simon Wolf, a Seneca Falls, president of the New York branch of the Alliance Israelite Universelle, for Benezuel, and Ramon Azouze, formerly of Philadelphia, and now of New York, interpreter at the United States consulate in Tangier.

Benezuel recited the story of his alleged wrongs. Ramon Azouze also made statements concerning the alleged criminal crimes of Lewis. Secretary Blaine will examine the documents in the case. Consul Lewis has been ordered to appear to answer the charges made against him.

THE MARITIME CONFERENCE.

International Delegates Arriving—The Sessions to Open Next Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—Delegates to the international maritime conference are beginning to arrive. The first to report was Capt. A. M. Blakes, delegate from China. He is an American, who has been connected for many years with the Chinese government. The chevalier Eustachio Settlemir, Italy's delegate, has reached this country and will soon be in Washington.

The conference will meet next Wednesday. Arrangements for the formal opening have not yet been announced. The conference expires by limitation Jan. 31, and will probably sit out its full term. Lieut. Stanton, who has had charge of all the maritime conferences and has been designated as secretary, has been detailed as district officer at Chicago, and will be succeeded at the conference by Lieut. Cottman.

The American delegates, headed by Admiral Franklin, will meet in Washington Monday.

MR. RANDALL IMPROVING.

He Feels as Restored to Health by the Time Congress Meets.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The Hon. Samuel J. Randall, the protectionist leader on the Democratic side of the House, has arrived in Washington. He does not look like the very sick man he has so recently been reported to be. Mr. Randall looks about as vigorous as usual, and says he feels better than he has for some time. He acknowledges, however, that he is not as well as he was three or four years ago, but believes he will be restored to health by the time Congress convenes.

Commissioner Groff's Latest Decision.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Land Commissioner Groff has rejected the homestead claim of Mrs. Mary Barr from the Mitchell (D. T.) land district. Mrs. Barr, according to the testimony, entered the claim before her marriage and moved a small house on it. The claim adjoined the claim of Mr. Barr, whom she afterward married, when they moved their house close together on the line, each living in their own house, and there being no communication between the two except by going outside.

Mrs. Barr's claim is rejected on the ground that husband and wife cannot maintain separate residence at the same time and in the same house, so that each by virtue of said residence may perfect an entry under the homestead law. It is said that there are a number of cases in the general land office similar to the one in question, and the case of Mrs. Barr.

Back Pay for West Point Cadets.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The question arises as to how many men are entitled to compensation under the decision of the courts that cadets at West Point are members of the regular army, and are entitled to back pay for their services during their term of study. The point embraced in the decision applies not only to officers still living but to the heirs of officers. About one thousand and two hundred applications have been filed. It is estimated that $1,500,000 will pay all claims.

CITY TAXES.

Notice is hereby given that the annual warrant for the collection of the city taxes for the year 1889 is in my hands, and that I will receive said taxes at my office in this city until the 15th day of September next, after which I shall be succeeded as the law directs.

THE NEWS SUMMARY.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has appointed John W. Blackburg, of Utah, to be an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Utah.

The approximate gross earnings of the electric light system for September is $2,642,343, against $2,475,994 for the same month last year.

Reports from New York say that ex-President Cleveland declined the offer of Tammany Hall that he become candidate for Congress in the late S. S. Cox's district.

MURAT HALSTEAD, over his signature in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, retracts the charges made against Campbell, the Democratic candidate for Governor, connecting him with the ballot-box scheme in Congress, and declares that the facsimile letters published in his paper are forgeries.

A PITTSBURGH engineer is preparing a model of a suspension bridge across the Hudson between Jersey City and New York. It will be 7,000 feet long and 140 feet high. The river span will be 2,850 feet and the other two spans over 2,000 feet, while the cost is estimated at $10,000,000.

PICKPOCKETS "went through" the passengers on a Pan-Handle train near Newark, Ohio, securing about $5,000.

DONALD MORRISON, convicted at Sherbrook, Que., of killing Constable Warren in 1888, has been sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentiary.

At Baltimore, Md., an attempt was made to poison the family of Mr. William Young, member of the Hartford county bar at Belair. Arsenic was found in the bread, and the colored cook is suspected.

TREASURER J. A. BERMAN of Osborne county, Kansas, a prominent G. A. R. man, is short $3,000 in his accounts and has turned over his property to his bonds- holder, who has been sentenced to the penitentiary for the same reason.

Sundry Mishaps.

The 12-year-old daughter of Mr. Rudabach, living near Carlisle, Pa., was gored to death by an infuriated bull. Another child was severely injured.

JUDGE ROBERT BAILEY of Carrollton, Ohio, fell from an apple tree fifteen feet upon a picket fence and was killed. One of the pickets was driven into his lungs.

POLITICIANS FIGHT.

Maryland Democrats Come to Blows in a Private Room.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 12.—It has just leaked out that an encounter took place last Saturday in the private room of the Democratic headquarters between Col. Victor Baughman, the Democratic nominee for comptroller, and Samuel Cox, cashier in the custom house, in which Baughman was terribly beaten.

It is said the Senators Gorman, Cox, Baughman, and other leading Democrats met in the lobby of the Carrollton hotel. Cox was accused of defeating ex-Congressman Andrew J. Chapman in the nomination of the Maryland Senate because he was pledged to the "ring" candidate to support Gov. Jackson for the United States Senate.

Baughman headed abuse upon Cox, when Gorman left and the other two men went into the private room of Stephen Archer, chairman of the State central committee, where Baughman continued his abuse, and a free fight ensued. Cox has his finger broken, while he cut open Baughman's head in several places. The matter has been kept very quiet.
